Vinnie, is this real (meaning not slowed or sped up)?

Btw: this is the most similar other case I know of youtu.be/P-iFx3VliQ0

Nice catch! We rarely see these things changing altitude and course that abruptly. Given the sun's position it should have been around 7:30pm that evening, correct?

Hello, nice video! Do you allow me to use it to broadcast on my channel for my subscribers? I would obviously put a link to your video.
thank you

I saw it after I full screened and watched twice. Need to go to download.com or cnet.com, download a free video editor. Enlarge and slow the object. Ain't no dust particle! Thxs for posting.

Go on FaceBook and like my page VinDronus APV and look in the comments of this post. I have sharpened and enlarged a snap of it.
